

GOVARDHAN starts calculating. They are walking on a dimly lit, deserted road. SULOCHANA hears a rush of footsteps. She looks at VEDA, who also hears it. GOVARDHAN is still muttering under his breath. SULOCHANA moves closer to VEDA.

He turns back and sees some large, shadowy figures walking towards him. No one else on the road. VEDA suddenly picks up the pace and starts running. He pulls SULOCHANA along with him. Both of them sprint. GOVARDHAN is shocked for a second.

He turns and sees the men behind him. Afraid, he also turns and runs behind VEDA and SULOCHANA. The BUM sees the trio and also runs, seemingly for no reason.

GOVARDHAN
(Yelling)
Cheppakunda pargedthaava...
Droiiiiiiiiiii!!!

The men chasing, the Minister's goons, also start running.

CUT TO:

116 EXT. MINISTER'S HOUSE - NIGHT

Festivities are galore, with the house lit up, and a welcome board saying it is the FOREST Minister's GRANDSON's birthday.

VEDA, SULOCHANA, GOVARDHAN and the BUM have their heads covered with black cloth. The LEAD GOON, sitting in the van, calls the FOREST MINISTER.
