SULOCHANA hands GOVARDHAN's Milton water flask. The security person is about to grab it, when MODI brushes him off. VEDA whispers in GOVARDHAN's ear

GOVARDHAN

Aa neeru paarabosa ...kotha neeru
pattaadu ANJI

MODI quenches his thirst, and gives it back to them.

SULOCHANA

Inka rendu moodu chukkalu

GOVARDHAN is about to say something when VEDA stops him.

SULOCHANA has a sip and gives it to GOVARDHAN

GOVARDHAN

VEDA

VEDA drinks what is left of it. MODI walks up to the three and congratulates them. Photographers huddle around.

GOVARDHAN stays away from MODI, annoyed by everyone being so close together.

EXT. ROAD - DAY

The BUM is wandering along, when he sees a thrash-can shaped like a woman. He walks up against it, slowly leans in to kiss, when it turns into a butterfly. He looks at it, tosses the water he is carrying, and chases it down. He reaches the middle of the road, and catches the butterfly, admiring it. A giant truck gets closer and closer to him, honking louder and louder... The truck swerves to avoid him and crashes into a resting DCM nearby. Alcohol from the truck's cargo spills over.
