

SULOCHANA
 Ayyo! Okkadine ikkada vadilesthunnaava? Etila osthaadu?

VEDA
 (Tightening his jaw)
 Naaku theleedu...
 Vadileyamannaadu.

The car moves a few hundred feet when VEDA glances with a little guilt in the rear view mirror - he sees GOVARDHAN running behind the car, waving his hands frantically. VEDA smiles sarcastically, but a little relived, and stops the car.

VEDA
 Thelivi thanukochinattundi...

GOVARDHAN
 Nee Bonda!... Ikkadiki ra.

He pulls VEDA out of the car and gets him to the dhaba's entrance. SULOCHANA follows them behind. GOVARDHAN points at the TV, which is reporting that the ashram has been put on fire. They see footage of the a container near the Ashram's security area ablaze. Three people have been suspected for the arson, with photographs of GOVARDHAN and SULOCHANA plastered across the TV screen.

80 INTERMISSION

81 EXT. ABANDONED PARK - DAY

The BUM is sitting on a park bench, briefcase in hand. He is exerting all his might to open the briefcase - he tries wrecking it with his hands but can't do. He hammers it with a rock, but only hits his own thumb. He tries prying it open with the edge of the park bench, but fails. His attention gets diverted when he sees a dried up water fountain as the parks center-piece - it is a mermaid. He walks towards it, wicked smile transfixed on him, and leans in to kiss it.

CUT TO:

82 EXT. ROADSIDE DHABA - DAY

VEDA and SULOCHANA continue to look at the TV, shell-shocked.

GOVARDHAN is not pleased. Repeated footage of the burning ashram airs, the burning container also in the footage.
